General Information

Summer Sizzle 16: A Piano Pedagogy Symposium offers experienced and new teachers, as well as senior students, a variety of workshops, showcases and concerts.

'Summer Sizzle 16' offers:

10 Pedagogy Workshops: guest clinicians will offer ten one-hour pedagogy workshops. (watch our website for regular updates and additions).

Master Classes: master classes featuring our Keyboard Kamp students are hosted by Wes Froese, Debra Wanless, and visiting Canadian composers.

Showcases: featuring new Canadian works.

New Product Music Blitzes: 15 minute New Product Blitzes provide teachers with an opportunity to learn about new and exciting Canadian music products.

2 Evening Concerts: Summer Sizzle hosts two exciting concerts. The Thursday evening concert is a delightful student concert featuring Canadian Jazz works hosted by Wes Froese. Friday evening is the Gala of New Canadian works, premiering the latest Northern Lights material. Works will be performed by students and visiting composers.

Coffee Breaks: Summer Sizzle hosts four nutritious and energizing coffee breaks throughout the two days.

Bring Your Students to ‘Children do not come to us ‘music lesson ready’; we need to develop strategies that assist with musical language and concepts.’

– Creative Teaching Understanding Learning Styles and the Beginning Piano Student Debra Wanless 2011

Keyboard Kamp!

Summer Sizzle Keyboard Kamp offers students master classes and workshops hosted by experts from across Canada and abroad. This complete two-day Keyboard Kamp for students aged 7 to 21, was part of expanded programming at Summer Sizzle starting in 2007.

Participating students develop performance skills, compositional techniques, the lost art of improvisation, and share their music in a social setting.
