Pieces written in the 21st century can be a channel of artistic expression for students, a reaction to the happenings of life around them, connecting the musician to their current world. The exploration of contemporary music aids in developing critical thinking skills and empowers students with the tools to begin to develop their own artistic voice from a young age.	9:30 – 10:25 amGroup A: Composers & KidsHost: Debra Wanless Location: SaskatchewanStudents should perform a work by the visiting composer.Group B: Master ClassHost: Christopher Norton Location: Prairie CentralStudents will perform own choice of Norton jazz work.Group C: Jazz Master ClassHost: Wes Froese Location: Biggar Majestic TheatreStudents will perform own choice Canadian Jazz work.Group D: Composition Session 1Hosts: Lynette Sawatsky Location: AlbertaEach student group will prepare a group composition under the tutelage of visiting Canadian composers.Group E: Composition Session 1Host: Nicholas Fairbank Location: BCSee Group D above for description

3:30 – 4:15 PM	Pedagogy Workshop #6 Topic: Developing Your Creativity Host: Martha Hill Duncan Location: Canada I’m often asked, “How do you create something from nothing?” as if for one moment there’s silence and in the next - a musical masterpiece. Many say that creativity is a gift, but I would counter that musical creativity comes from varied musical exposure, long practised and developed skills and a laser-focused vision to solve a musical puzzle with an artistic solution. We’ll discuss our personal musical challenges and successes, while exploring and encouraging creative activities and exercises.	3:30 – 4:30 pm Group A: Together in Biggar ‘23 Host: Stella terHart Location: Alberta Students will play personal compositions and discuss compositional ideas with the visiting composer. 8:30 – 9:15 AM	Pedagogy Workshop #7 Topic: Playing Off Key, Gender and Race Disparity in Piano Literature and Competitive Repertoire Host: Olivia Adams Location: Canada Despite the surge in conversations around DEI (Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion) the field of piano literature and performance lags behind in gender and IBPOC representation within piano literature, curriculum and competition repertoire. This research explores gender and racial biases of the institutional canons through the use of data analysis, and confronts this gender-race disparity in the repertoire with practical resources for next steps to reconcile these inequities in the field of piano.	8:30 – 9:30 am Group A: Part 1 - Sound Adventure (8:30 - 8:55AM) Host: Michael Dobinson Location: Common Area/Entry BCS Group A: Part 2 - Improv (9:00 - 9:30AM) Host: Lynette Sawatsky & Ruth Wilkin Location: Ontario Group B: Composition Session 3 Host: Martha Hill Duncan Location: Manitoba Group C: Taking the Lead Host: Wes Froese Location: Saskatchewan Students are coached in developing lead sheets and keyboard harmonization.
